

SPECIAL JURY TO PROBE LYNCHING

Paris, Texas, July 10.—A special grand jury convened here today to inquire fully into the burning to death by a mob Tuesday night of Herman and Irving Arthur, negroes. District Judge H. H. Dutton, who ordered special grand jury term said public sentiment demanded punishment of the mob ring leaders.

Citizens at a mass meeting yesterday adopted a resolution recommending a "rigid investigation be made of the recent outrages committed against the laws of our state and the peace and dignity of our country."

The two negroes charged with having shot and killed a white farmer and his son near Paris, and fall into the hands of a mob after the county jail had been stormed.

SIX DEEP TEST RIGS ARE OPERATING IN PECOS

Port Stockton, Texas, July 10.—Six deep test rigs are in operation in Pecos county including sections of the Bethlehem-Texas, principal owner John Lee of San Francisco; the Menzies company, principal owners, Menzies and Kimberley, of Okmulgee, Okla.; the Kelly company, principal owners, Kelly, of Pecos, a K. & C. Circle Oil company, a California syndicate, and the Alexander syndicate, California.

The Menzies people, at the 100-foot level, passed through a very tempting sand and some of the members of the company were inclined to the opinion that it was worth while to cease drilling, case and shoot the hole, but as C. E. Menzies had determined to "go down to the deep stuff," he was not to be diverted from his objective by shallow showings. This well is now down 3725 feet, with work temporarily suspended, waiting for casing. The company recently closed a drilling contract for a shallow well, to be drilled a short distance south of the deep test, for the purpose of picking up the sand that was passed through at the 1000 level. The rig is now on route and will soon be placed in operation.

The Bethlehem-Texas well, on the corner of the Pecos and Texas, on block 2, has suspended drilling operations at a depth of 3105 feet after having passed through 15 feet of oil sand, and the operators are now preparing to case off a slight flow of water which has filled the casing about 150 feet, and after doing so will shoot the well.

The Great Oil corporation, of Pittsburgh, Pa., which recently closed a lease of the Turner holdings, north of Port Stockton, has taken a rig out to section 13, block 140, where the first well will be drilled.

The Montague well, owned by a California syndicate, has secured a large tract of land northeast of Port Stockton, and the company's rigs are now out buying drill rigs.

A local company, the Port Stockton syndicate, has just been perfected with James Hooten, treasurer, P. H. Campbell, chairman, and W. A. Hand, secretary, of the board of trustees. Drilling operations will be started by the company at once.

IRA BELL SEEKS DATA ON HOW TO SHUT OFF WATER

Pecos, Texas, July 10.—Ira Bell has gone to the Louisiana oil fields for the purpose of conferring with experts there regarding the best method by which to shut off the water which is deluging the fields in several wells in the Pecos valley field.

Failure to find a hard rock overlying the thin clay, which has been found at a shallow depth in this territory, has prevented the drilling in of numerous wells believed certain to be producers, and has interfered considerably with the production of the Bell discovery well.

APACHE INDIANS HAVE FIRST
TRIBAL DANCE IN LONG TIME

Phoenix, Ariz., July 10.—Just before Fourth of July and with slightly less noise, Apache Indians on the Fort McDowell reservation northeast of here about 40 miles, put on the first tribal dance the reservation has allowed them to have. It is said, since the days when Apache dances were preliminary to massacre of settlers and scalping parties. Furthermore, the Indians were most cordial in invitations to the whites to visit their reservation and see the dances, which were held July 2 and 3.

On July 2, the Pima tribe, in early days hostile to the Apaches and consequently friendly to the white settlers whom they frequently reinforced in battle, held its tribal dances on the reservation south of Mesa.

NEGRO'S CONFESSION BEFORE
HANGING CLEARS CONVICT

Dallas, Tex., July 10.—The confession of Green Hunter, alias James Brown, negro, who yesterday was legally hanged for the slaying of a white woman at Hale Station May 22, exonerated Ben Perry, also a negro, who is serving the high-water of a life term sentence for another alleged attack on a white girl. Hunter admitted he committed both crimes.

LIGHTNING STRIKES PILE
DRIVER; 3 WORKMEN DIE

New Orleans, La., July 10.—The number of dead as the result of lightning striking a piledriver on the Mississippi canal remained at eight today. The men, workmen employed on the canal, had taken refuge beneath the piledriver during a storm yesterday.
